Bet Shemesh Kashrus 5772

The Rav needs a few volunteers to compile a list of every eatery and food establishment in BS, RBSA and RBSB for the upcoming, 5772 Kashrut Guide. Simple, basic information is all that is needed.

Starting right now, finishing in a month. Men or ladies.

We are only talking about making such a list—no need to go anywhere, though that would be helpful if it is not clear where it is. Please contact the Rav.

Finishing Touches

Some last-minute thanks for people who helped put the final touches on the Beis Medrash renovation:

- "Just Now" painters (our own Yehuda Leib Joelson, and especially Shmuel Shwartz for braving the heights) for adding some final painting touches.
- A brave crew of 3 who scaled the heights of the scaffolding, and painstakingly disassembled it,
- Many nameless people who moved, replaced, removed, and replaced the chairs and tables over and over again.
- Beryl Thomas, for his well-designed and good looking doors over the electric boxes.
- Jonathan Schleider, for helping remove the geves in the Ezras Nashim for the new bookcases.

Shavuos Is Coming!

Shavuos is just around the corner!

- Avos Ubonim the Rav, not to mention
- Learning in our Beis Atomic Fire Balls
- Medrash with the best • Daf Yomi
- kol torah in town • Coffee, Drinks, Cake

Women's Shmiras HaLashon Siyum

Yaasher Kochachem to the women who attended the siyum for the Shmiras Halashon program, initiated to be a zechus for a refuah shleimah for Yeshaya Shalom ben Malka Gittel.

We were honored to have had the following women, who spoke about the strength we have when we unite in our efforts to watch our words:

- Rebbetzin Malinowitz
- Mrs. Malka Blass
- Rebbetzin Yael Orlowek, the Bet Shemesh coordinator for Mishmeres HaShalom

Rebbetzins Chavi Rappaport and Debbie Shapiro from Yerushalayim addressed us with words of chizuk and inspiration about the power of Shmiras Halashon and the importance of learning the 2 Halachos in the Shmiras Halashon program.

Thank you to Rebbetzin Yehudis Landau and Mrs. Yael Orlowek for arranging the speakers and coordinating a wonderful program.

Please join us as we start the new cycle again and review the halachos of shmiras halashon.
