Letter From the Rav

Moraiy VeRabosaiy:

The days leading up to Shavuos were days of intense preparation - just open a Chumash Shemos, and read about it in Parshas Yisro. Open a Gemarra Shabbos and learn Daf 86A--89B.

We can do no less.

Motzei Shabbos, BTYA is having a Keness/Melava Malka (catered by the Kaplans' catering business, Impressions), which will include gratitude, divrei berachah, and hisorerus from your fellow learners at BTYA, as well as from a newly-arrived-in-Eretz-Yisrael guest-speaker, Rav Moshe Goldstein Sh'lita (come check him out!). We hope to give an overview of the learning going on at the Shul, and discuss some plans for the future.

As a way of showing appreciation for the mokom Torah that the Shul has become, and support for the plans it has to expand its present level, please join all of us there.

Seth Grossman, a steady and consistent learning-presence in our Beis Medrash, will be our first speaker at the Melave Malka, speaking at 9:50 PM promptly.

If you have ever heard Seth speak, you won't want to miss it (so much so, that you might EVEN be finished eating and schmoozing before he starts!).

If you've never heard him, you'll thank us for this chance.

Yeyasher kochachem!

Rav Chaim Malinowitz

New Summer Season Oneg Starting

A new format of the BTYA leil Shabbos oneg (i.e. summer edition) will iy"H be starting this week, from 9 PM to 10 PM, in the shul. It will take place iy"H every other week, for now.

Join the Rav as we learn through 2 or 3 (or more) fundamental inyanim selected by the Rav from the week's Ramban al HaTorah.

Burning Thanks

The BTYA Madura/Lag Ba'omer celebration was filled with the holy flames of achdus, Torah, singing, and a memorable melave malka!

Thanks to all the kids (and parents) who collected the wood and set up the madura. Especially to the Fein family for storing it all, the Bryks family for their power, Beryl for hooking it up, and of course D o v Greenberg and Yossi Leff for grilling up the delicious melave malka. Also a special thanks to Yehuda David and Ben Katz for the great music, Moshe Burt for his guest appearance, and Rabbi Padowitz for his inspirational D'var Torah.

Changes in the Otzar Sefarim

The new bookcases now give us room to expand all sections of the otzar sefarim, so donations and suggestions are welcome. Please note the list of "donatable" sefarim that we know we want, on the Shul bulletin board outside the Beis Medrash.

In the new section in the Beis Medrash, you will now find:

- A new section of 'English Halacha' sefarim
- The Shu"t
- Arachim u'Clallim

This is still a work in progress! More changes coming:

- A new bookcase is being made for the stairwell to the Ezras Nashim/Vasikin בית מדרש
- The new bookcases in the Ezras Nashim will be used for lesser-used sefarim (reference-works) and for a new kollel Otzar Sefarim

Direct your questions, comments, and suggestions to Jonathan Sassen.

A huge יישר כחכם to the entire Sassen family, and you know who we mean... both for the constant, day-to-day upkeep of the "Otzar," as well as for the frequent upgrades!

Donate Chumashim:

We are still short about 30 chumashim. Donations and dedications are welcome. See Jonathan or the gabbaim (and speak to the Rav before buying them yourself).

See the back page for some of Beryl's great Lag Ba'omer pics.

Shavuos Tea—for Women

Come join your friends and make your Shavuos extra special and inspiring!

This year, the BTYA women's Shavuos Tea will have the honor of hosting the celebration of the completion of the Chovos Halevovos' Shaar Avodas Elokim by the Sunday night shiur that takes place at the home of Mrs. Schaeffer.

In honor of the occasion, Rav Malinowitz will be joining us, and giving a synopsis of the shaar. This is especially appropriate for Shavuos, as it gives a life-altering approach in our avodas HaShem!

The Syium will take place ON SHAVUOS DAY, at 4:00 PM, at the home of Yitty Bisk, Nachal Dolev 48/1 (bottom floor).
