Summer Oneg

The RamBan shiur this week, aka summer oneg, will take place at 9:30 PM in the Shul, and will explore the RamBan's shittoh in mitzvahs yishuv eretz yisrael (RamBan Bamidbar 33:53 and in Sefer Hamitzvoahs, RamBan's "additions" to mitzvahs assei, mitzvah 4). If time allows, we will explore other possible shittohs.

Pirchei

This week is the last week of Pirchei before it breaks for the summer.

Special thanks to Chaninah Rubin, Yossi Billyack, and David Lichtenstein.

Shoah Experiences

The Shul is proud to present Mrs. Livia Shacter, a 94-year-old holocaust survivor, who made aliyah to RBS last year.

She will be speaking principally about her personal Shoah experience, iyh, downstairs in Ulam Shabsai, on this Sunday night, the night of Rosh Chodesh Av at 8:30 PM sharp! No admission fee.

Prior to her aliyah, Mrs. Shacter was a regular speaker at the Simon Wiesenthal Center in Los Angeles. In addition, she has spoken at the Holocaust Museum in Washington, D.C. and to large audiences at universities, high schools, government agencies and at a military base with an audience of 47,000 United States Marines. Recently she spoke at Yad Vashem here in Israel.

Mrs. Shacter also appears in the Academy Award winning documentary, "The Long Way Home." This is a compelling documentary of the time period from 1945 - 1948. It depicts the struggle of the survivors after liberation and the birth of the State of Israel.

After Mrs. Shacter speaks, she will gladly answer questions.

Mrs. Shacter will be speaking principally to the women. Men who want to hear her are invited, too, and will be sitting behind a mechitza (take that, guys!).

The Rav urges all to attend.

No Ladies Chovohs Shiur This Sunday

NO LADIES" Chovohs HaLevavohs Shiur Sunday night, Rav Malinowitz urges everyone (men, too) to attend the talk by Mrs Shacter.

See announcement elsewhere in this bulletin.

Recommended Reading

Rav Malinowitz highly recommends the book, "The Harp" by Meir Uri Gottesman (Targum Press) for great historical fiction in his inimitable style, on a quite high level, on the weeks and days leading up to the churban, and the churban itself (Bayis Sheni).

It is riveting, realistic, and has you feeling the events. (This is the author of the book The Morning Star, which Rav Malinowitz recommended for a realistic description in a fictional setting of yemei Bayis Sheni, and the events surrounding the burning of a para adumah.)
