Guest Speaker

Rabbi Yehonason Alpren will be our guest speaker for the d'rosha this Shabbos.

Rabbi Alpren, who recently moved to RBS from Har Nof, has been learning in Mir Yeshivah since about 1980, and is a sought-after speaker all over the world. We are happy and proud to present him to the olom.

Close to 50 People...

Came on Thursday night to hear Rabbi Jacobovitz explain very fundamental concepts of Yiddishkeit, in very simple, straightforward terms.

Many of us grew up as FFBs, and we've heard a lot about these concepts, but to be able to effectively pass them down to our kids...we're lost.

BTYA presents a 4-week mini-course in these vitally important topics. For more information, see the ad on the back page.

Next class is this coming Monday, from 8:45-10:15 PM.

Chevron

Join BTYA this year for a short trip to Chevron, including:

- Shacharis at the Me'aras HaMachpela
- The Rav, Shli"ta's annual Kivrei Avos Sicha
- A tour of parts of Jewish Chevron with Rabbi Simcha Hochbaum

Each of these is worth the trip in itself, but we are putting it all together, including bullet-proof bus (protected by Hashem), for an incredibly low price!

Seating is very limited, and will be allocated based on PAID reservations only. Members first, of course.

DETAILS

- Friday, Ellul 24 (Sep 23), leave RBS at 7 AM.
- Return no later than 12:30 PM, IY"H.
- Bring a light breakfast to be eaten on the bus.
- 50 NIS per person, non-refundable.

See your email for details of how to get seats.

(Shabbos Tefillah will take place at BTYA this year, IY"H. Stay tuned for more details.)

New, for Women!

Introducing the BTYA-Neshei email list - for women only!

Are you a BTYA wife who:

- Needs to schedule a playdate (or find a babysitter) for your 4-year-old?
- Looks for new and tasty (and quick!) recipes for Shabbos lunch?
- Wants to recommend something to other women that, frankly, men don't care about at all?

Then this list is for you!

We are going to automatically sign up all member women WHO HAVE THEIR OWN EMAIL ADDRESS to this list. If you share an address with your husband, and you want that shared address to be included, write to yonatan.malki@gmail.com asking to be signed up, and we'll do that for you. (Please remind your husband that this is a list for women.)

Melave Malka Thanks

We would like to thank all the women that came out last motzaei shabbos for our welcoming melaveh malka. The room was packed with many newcomers and "oldtimers." The warm and friendly atmosphere was enjoyed by all. For the women who could not make it, we missed you and we are looking forward to seeing you at the next event.

Thank you to:

- Rebbitzen Malinowitz for your divrei chizuk for Elul.
- Mrs. Shulie Gherman for hosting.
- Impressions catering for bringing the tasty food right after shabbos.
- Mrs. Tali Slifkin and Mrs. Ellie Fine for setting up and cleaning up.

If you have not had a chance to sign up to be an important part of a committee, send an email to Lauren Pitzele, lauren.pitzele@gmail.com, and let her know which committee you would like to be on (the ones with a * could really use you):

- * Phone squad
- * Melaveh Malka
- * Bazaar
- * Welcoming
- Mother-Daughter
- Shalach manos

Each person is so important and we really need you for a successful year!

Thank you,

Lauren Pitzele, and Shari Gherman

Survey

Did you answer the BTYA Involvement Survey yet?

If not, please do. It only takes a minute but is very important to the shul, the Board (and you, too!). If you didn't receive it, please email info@btya.org.

1-Minute Daily Mussar Avoda

Be On The Lookout For The

1-Minute Daily Mussar Avoda

Coming to YOUR Inbox

Once a week, we'll send a short mussar piece, concluding with an exercise. Reading the piece will take about 90 seconds.

The exercise is meant to be done every day for a week, requiring just 60 seconds a day.

At the end of the week, you'll get a question to answer (to yourself, about 90 seconds of time) to concretize the lesson of the week (and 'force' you to do the exercises daily) before moving on to the next week's avoda.

This program has been proven—besides being a week-long exercise to inculcate a particular mussar concept—to be able to change a person completely: to be a baal aliya, someone open to change in general, someone sensitive to avodas atzmi, someone sensitive to good middos and the need to cultivate the good and prune the bad, etc.

The mussar piece will be 2 - 3 paragraphs from selected mussar seforim, with a preference for seforim that already have an English translation.

In the concluding 90-second exercise, you will answer - What areas of change did you take on this past week in your 1-minute mussar avoda?

The 1-Minute Daily Mussar Avoda continues into the second week of Elul.

The consistency of this minimal daily investment will create a groundswell of growth for the upcoming y'mei hadin. Every member of the Kehillah is asked to please read Sunday's short mussar e-mail, and commit 1-minute each day, at a time of your own choosing, and in a place of your own choosing, to try this self-development program.

Is Anyone Listening to Me??

Ladies, Do you feel like you need...

- an "aytza"?
- to just talk things over with someone?
- to unburden yourself of something bothering you?
- to get something off your chest?

BTYA is proud to announce the opening of a
"Listening Ear Gemach"

We are developing a group of volunteers with expertise in specific areas (medical, psychological, shalom bayis, financial), NOT to deal with the problem itself (on the phone), but to be able to give you a more focused aytzah about how to proceed.

The program will start with Mrs. Elisheva Schulman taking your calls, Sunday and Wednesday mornings, from 9 AM to 12 noon, at 052-457-0222.

Complete discretion is a given.

At the meeting, we will be discussing plans for the upcoming year, as well as presenting the Shul's financial budget.

The following individuals have agreed to give of their time, energy, and input to serve on the upcoming board:

- Vice President—Aryeh Sonnenberg

Shlomo Scholnick will be continuing as the Shul Treasurer.

The meeting is open to men and women. Questions, comments, and participation from all are encouraged!

The board is committed to work with the Rav to fulfill the Shul's mission statement:

Our Mission

To maintain and expand an open and tolerant קהילה that fosters and develops the 'עבודת ה' (including חִיבַת אֱרֶץ יִשְׂרָאֵל) of English-speakers in אֶרֶץ יִשְׂרָאֵל, in order to help them grow in their רִחוּנִית, and also one which assists them with the גְּשָׁמִיּוֹת needs of normal, everyday life. We consider the Kehilah "חֲרָדִי" in the sense of the acknowledgment and implementation of the centrality of תּוֹרָה תְּלִמּוּד and דְּקִדּוּק בְּמִצְוֹת in our lives. Through our success, we hope to influence Israeli society as well.

One of the nicest parts about membership and seating is that we get a chance to sit face-to-face with all members, for just a few minutes. If you are doing email registration, we'll lose that opportunity :(

So, if any of your contact information has changed (cell phone, email, or home address), download and fill out "Member info.doc" file and e-mail it along with the Sign-up form to the same e-mail address.

If you have any questions or need to discuss your arrangements, please come to one of the sign-up sessions in the shul. Please do not try to make special arrangements by e-mail; we cannot guarantee that anybody will read the bodies of e-mails sent to the above address.

Great חינוך Opp for Your Girls

We are again planning to have groups in the Ulam S'machos, for younger children (girls ages 2 - 8, boys ages 2 - 6), during Rosh Hashanah davening.

In order to have the groups, we need girls 10 and older to volunteer some time as group leaders. If your daughter can help, please have them call (or call for them!), and give the details of how many hours and what age they want, to Yael Shira or Shifra Gherman at 992-4533.

We also need donations of games and toys. Drop them by the Ghermans at Nachal Tamar 6. Do not give anything you want back and please make sure they are appropriate for Yom Tov play.

Last year we did not get many donations, we hope for more this year to make it easier for the group leaders.
