4 Minim

Moraiy VeRabosaiy:

The person who has been selling us arba minim at the Shul for a few years now will be servicing us this year again.

If you prefer to shop around and wait in a long line for a posek, you can do that. You are NOT being pressured to buy, chas veshalom. This is purely for your benefit. Nobody is profiting from this (but the socher).

ESROGIM

The esrogim have been carefully and slowly picked and checked out first. They will be sold in a closed box, each marked with a different level.

After you take the level you ordered, you can open the box and show it to me. I, alone, have the right to disqualify its level, on the night of the sale only. Last year, I think it happened once, maybe twice.

LULAVIM

The lulavim, as last year, are coming in a patented sealed lulav-in-a-bag (Eida Charedis), to guarantee freshness. The guarantee is valid if it is unopened until at least the Tuesday before Sukkos.

You will be able to see the lulav completely, except maybe for the closed top. For the lulav tops, you are trusting the moreh hora'ah. (For the the alef/alef and alef levels, this is the Eidah Hachareidis).

The lulav will be of the highest quality for that sug (this applies to all the sugim), picked and chosen carefully by a moreh hora'ah much more machmir than you would ever be.

I will be in RBS on Tuesday before Sukkos, and if you want to open it and look, and feel it is not up to the standards you were expecting, you may come to me. If I agree, it will be switched (in Yerushalayim).

Or, you can open it on the spot by the sale, but you'll lose the freshness guarantee; they are no worse than the lulavim you buy regularly, though, so if you have never had a freshness problem, you shouldn't have one now, either.

DETAILS

You will be able to choose from a set of the following levels (includes Lulav, Esrog, and Haddassim):

- * Alef/Alef – 395 shekel
- * Alef – 290 shekel
- * Bais – 190 shekel
- * Kasher lechatchilah (aka Gimmel) – 125 shekel

The sale will take place the Sunday after Yom Kippur, IYH, between the 2 maarivs (8:15 pm to 10:15 pm). Because of the way we do this, there is no need to come early, to be nervous, push, shove, etc.

TO ORDER

Reply back to me, at rav@btya.org or czm613@gmail.com, letting me know how many you want of each set.

What A Kashrus Guide!

The BTYA Kashrus-Guide Team, and R' Yechiel Spira (jerusalemkoshernews.com), wish to thank Miss C. Loring, of strokeofgeniusdesign.com for the superb and beautiful-looking guide she has fashioned for us.

Words cannot describe the kochos, time, effort, talent, and mesirus nefesh Miss Loring has put into the guide under unrelenting pressure (worth the 10 shekel just to gaze at it, not to mention the wealth of information inside that has never before been presented to the general public).

Yeyasher kochaych, and may HaShem repay you in all the ways that we cannot!

ORDERS WILL BE ACCEPTED THROUGH THE END OF TZOM GEDALYA ONLY.

Your order is NOT binding, so if you then decide to go elsewhere, that's fine, too.

Kesiva VaChasima Tova

Limited to members, associate members, and guests of theirs who are coming to spend Sukkos with them.

Great חינוך for Your Girls

We are again planning to have groups in the Ulam S'machos, for younger children (girls ages 2 - 8, boys ages 2 - 6), during Rosh Hashanah davening.

In order to have the groups, we need girls 10 and older to volunteer some time as group leaders. If your daughter can help, please have them call (or call for them!), and give the details of how many hours and what age they want, to Yael Shira or Shifra Gherman at 992-4533.

We need more girls, or this will not happen. Please don't wait until the last minute!

We also need donations of games and toys. Drop them by the Ghermans at Nachal Tamar 6. Do not give anything you want back and please make sure they are appropriate for Yom Tov play.

Last year we did not get many donations, we hope for more this year to make it easier for the group leaders.

Eiruv Tavshilin

With a rare-in-Israel "three-day-yomtov" coming up next week, here is an early reminder that you will need to prepare an Eiruv Tavshilin on Wednesday before Rosh Hashana..

If you have any questions how to do this, speak to the Rav.

BTYA Loan Gemach
