Invitation...NOT to a Wedding

Moraiy VeRabosaiy:

At the time of this writing, Motzei 9 Av, it appears as if BTYA's yearly summertime learning program, entitled Yarchei Kallah, will retain that nomenclature this year as well.

But as the milchama against those who would destroy us winds down (for better or for worse), we "fight" to maintain the spiritual benefits that we have achieved during the crises period.

One of those was a strengthening in our limud haTorah and ameilus b'Torah. And, what better way to maintain that, than to join in this program, which this year will be learning the sugya of עוסק במצוה פטור מן המצוה over about 2 weeks, starting this Sunday night.

(The fact that my daughter's wedding occurs one night of the program is interesting, as it gives rise to the shaylo if the above-mentioned din applies to Talmud Torah; and if not, why not? And what will you do the night of the wedding?)

Come join us, be part of this special undertaking.

You probably were already on the verge of taking on a special learning--there is no reason not to so now; and adarabah, having seen miraculous events protecting so many people, it is probably time to start preparing for the inevitable next round, which will, sadly, undoubtedly be even more intense.

We are doing this as a Kehilah...making it that much more geshmack and powerful.

For details, help with chevrusos, answers to questions, or a sample menu for what Doc Kallus likes to call the oichlin, contact Dr. David Kallus or Rabbi Saffer.

See you there!
