New Member Spotlight

Each summer brings with it new residents in Ramat Beit Shemesh, and many of these people decide to join our warm and friendly kehilla. Over the next few weeks we will focus on different new member families in the newsletter so that you can more easily welcome them into the BTYA family. Are you a new member? Please contact newsletter@btya.org so that we can include you, too!

This week we focus the spotlight on the Pinchuck family. Chaim and Chava Pinchuck made Aliyah in 2012 from Clifton/Passaic, New Jersey and now live on Refaim next to BTYA. Yehuda Reuven is 16 and learns at Maarava, Dina at Beit Yaacov, and Moshe, 12, at Magen Avos. The family is very happy, B"H, with their recent move near BTYA and to have joined this wonderful kehilla. Chava worked as an information specialist in the United States and enjoys needlework and baking. Chaim enjoys learning and provides neurofeedback assisted meditation and other integrative mental health services.

Now is a great time to try out our friendly minyon and still finish davening with the entire morning available to you.

Thank you to Rabbi Reuven (Robert) Saffer who sponsored this week's Kiddush on the occasion of completion of shloshim for his wife (and Rabbi Barak Saffer's mother). Each Kiddush features a famous Weismandl Cholent. To sponsor a Kiddush please contact Lev Seltzer lev@btya.org.
