חבורת ט"ב הרמה

Baruch HaShem - the second Chabura given by Rav Gamliel Rabinowitz this past week was a success. Rav Gamliel stressed that during the 3 weeks we should be mourning about the fact that אין לו בית אין לו בית - people should feel the pain that HaShem is going through that there is no Bais Hamikdash. You can listen to a recording of the Chabura on the shul's website.

Rav Gamliel has been very impressed with the guys that are attending and sees that they are serious about personal growth. Rav Gamliel has also had a chance to schmooze briefly with several guys before and after the Chabura. Rav Gamliel encouraged the guys in the Chabura to write down personal kabalas, which he takes with him to daven on people's behalf at mekomas hakedoshim.

The next Chabura will meet on Tuesday July 21 from 12:05-12:50pm in the vasikin room.

All men are invited/encouraged to come to all or any of the Chaburas even if you cannot be a regular.

Rav Gamliel also encouraged anyone who would like for him to daven on their behalf to fill out a kabalas form.

(The kabalas can be private and given directly to Rav Gamliel).

If you would like to join the Chabura or want to fill out the kabalas form please be in touch with Avi Kamionski 054-810-8156 or akamionski@me.com

SUCCESS! Trip to Ganei Tal

Several families from the community enjoyed a short visit in Moshav Ganei Tal, the only community from Gush Katif where all the residents relocated to the same community after the destruction. Moti Sender, our host, described to us their life back then, and how it has changed now. Moti owns greenhouses, growing houseplants that are under Rav Efrati's Shemitta supervision. Many people brought home "gifts" from his selection.
