

Moraiy veRabosa'y and Ladies of BTYA:

The following opportunity has just presented itself.

The klaf of the Navi Yeshaya which the Shul owns, has never been paid for. (It has—technically—but with borrowed money which has never been repaid.)

Its dedication and the zechus have now become available.

Yeshaya of course is by far the most lained-from Navi when we lain the haftara.

The dedication is available for $5,000. (This is the amount of the loan, and this price is quite inexpensive for a Yeshaya).

(The cost of the cover and the lettering on the cover will be separate.)

Be in touch with Rav Malinowitz.

The Sky Is Falling!

For years, the Rav's office (shared with the secretary), has been full of wires on the ceiling, the floor, the walls... Recently, JONATHAN SASSEN rearranged, removed, and restructured the whole gesheft. Finally, the room looks presentable.

Just one thing is missing... the ceiling is still unfinished.

We'd like to finish off the job with an ACOUSTIC CEILING that will make the room more presentable, as well as help the acoustics inside. We need to drop the air conditioner, and do a few more things at the same time.

We are looking for a sponsor, or sponsors, to help us make the project come to fruition, out of respect for the many people who come to speak to the Rav, and the sake of all those who work in the office.

Please contact Aryeh Sonnenberg at info2@btya.org or 054-499-1733.
