Chanukah Oneg

The Chanukah Oneg is this Friday night at the Lavi's house (that's Edo!!), Nahal Tamar 1, starting at 8:15 PM. Note the change of venue from where it is usually held.

The Chanukah Oneg has, over the years, become one of the signature events of BTYA. Come to the Oneg and enjoy the Torah, the cholent, the food, and the ruach, and leave spiritually, and physically, uplifted and inspired.

Do We Owe You Hakaros HaTov?

We are in the process of creating a master plaque for dedications and major donors, and unfortunately our records are less than perfect.

If you, or someone you know, has made a dedication to the Shul, please contact Aryeh Sonnenberg to confirm that we have that information.

In addition, if you, or someone you know has given $5,000 or more, cumulatively, since the inception of the Shul, please contact Aryeh so we can update our records. We would like to recognize those people, too.

If you don't want public recognition, we will respect that, of course, but please help us to update our records.

Ceiling Tiles—Just a Few More Needed!

Great news on the ceiling project...

Members and guests have pledged a little more than 110 tiles. We thought that we needed 180 all together, and that we were only about 60% of the way there.

We've been working on moving this project forward, and it turns out that there are only about 130 meters required, so we are almost all the way there...Only 20 more to go! YASHER KOACH!

The planning is moving forward, full speed ahead, and we may see some changes overhead in the next few months, IY"H.

To help us complete the ceiling, contact Aryeh Sonnenberg at 054-499-1733 or aryeh@manhigut.org.

Mother-Daughter Event

The grand/mother and daughter event this past week was a fantastic success! Everyone was amazed at all the talent and creativity in the room. Absolutely stunning mosaic mirrors were crafted by all ages.

Thank you so much to Debra Glanz and Sarit Schonberg for putting together such a memorable event. Women who requested a morning of mosaic just for mothers should contact Debra Glanz at 02-992-0829 - there are 8 spots open.
