Rav's D'rasha

Rav Malinowitz's Shabbos d'rasha tomorrow will cover a core, fundamental, essential issue -for individuals, for men, for women, for families, and for the Shul.

Rav Malinowitz requests that everyone make every effort to come and hear it - men, and women, too. Please adjust your Shabbos plans and schedules accordingly. The derasha will be 20 minutes long.

Seeing Shaya Home

It's never too late to join the "Seeing Shaya Home" program! We are going through one full cycle of the sefer Chofetz Chaim (the halachos of shemiras haloshon), from wherever you start (please start learning from the portion for the day on which you are starting) till that place is reached again. IYH this will remain an ongoing program

We have the latest, most concise and clear, "kitzur" sefer available--in Hebrew and English! You are free to learn in any version of the sefer Chofetz Chaim you choose, but please maintain the particular order and portion-per-day that we are using.

To purchase a sefer and to let us know you have joined the program, please contact Mrs. Yaffa Swinkin (995-5483 or bswinkin@aol.com) or Mrs. Yehudis Landau (999-6341). Tell us who you are learning with, too! If you would like to participate, but have not yet found a partner, we will try to help you!

This first cycle is dedicated to "Seeing Shaya Home", for the zechus of a רפואה שלימה for Yeshaya Shalom Ben Malka Gittel. It is something that takes a minute or 2 a day, and can easily done at home. Thus, "Seeing Shaya Home", in the zechus of the first cycle.

The kitzur-sefer of the sefer Chofetz Chaim that we are using has a cost of

- Hebrew: 20 shekel
- English: 60 shekel

If the cost of the sefer would affect your participation, please let us know; an anonymous donor has offered to subsidize the sefer in such a case.

Special TLC

When your husband is away, wouldn't you like a little more TLC?

The Women's chessed committee would like to be more helpful when husbands are travelling abroad.

The annual Pirchei Melave Malka is coming up. Be sure to block out Motzei Shabbos Parshas B'Shalach (January 15) on your calendars, saving it for the MM.
