Get Off The Fence!

The shul's Shalach manos project is one of our great member benefits, enabling you to send your Purim greetings to as many BTYA members as you wish, with one simple act. Only one catch...you gotta be a member.

If your membership status is "unclear," contact Mrs. Kagan (yael.kagan@bezeqint.net) so we can include you in the project.

If you want more information about membership options, or if you're not sure of your membership status, contact Tzvi Gherman (tgherman@outsidecounsel.net or 991-0210).

Milk, Cheese, And Other Dairy Issues

The next Shovevim Kashrus lecture features:

Rabbi Yaakov Borow,
Kashrus Ingredients Approval, from T'nuva.

Topics to be covered include:

- Why is some milk mehadrin and some not?
- If this is Israel, why are they using chalav nachri?
- What's with avkat chalav nachri?
- How do they milk the cows on Shabbos?
- How does milk get to be cheese (or yogurt or butter...)?
- The milchig-fleishig waiting game
- What is "hard cheese?"

Monday, January 31st, at 8:15 PM in the ezras nashim.

Open to men and women (with a mechitza).

In last Week's Kashrus Lecture...

Rabbi Yaakov Gurwitz "spun" the multiple threads of Shatnez into 4 simple rules.

You must check garments if they meet (even only) one of the following conditions

- If the label says wool (or Lana, Laine, Scher wolle)
- If the label says linen (or Lin, Lino, Leinen)
- If the label says "other fibers" (OF, MF, DF, AF)
- Regardless of what the label says...If the garment has a linen "look" to it

ALL men's suits must be checked, too.

Rabbi Gurwitz says that if you follow these rules, you'll catch very near 100% of all shatnez problems, and, NO, you cannot trust ANY manufacturer's label.

The RBS Shatnez Lab is offering a 20% discount on the next Shatnez test for participants at the shiur. You can contact them at 052-766-3411, Lachish 21/10.
