Get a Grip On It

You may have noticed new handles on the main doors to the shul. After replacing the last ones about ten times, Howie Goldstein took it upon himself to bring in the heavy armor from the US. Hopefully, these ones will have arichus yomim. Yasher Koach!

BTYA WOMEN...

An Important Message from the Rav

I would like to have the opportunity to speak with you about a most important matter (NOT tzeni'us or internet use). I would like everyone to attend, as it is relevant to everyone.

The time is 11:45 AM this coming Tuesday, in the ulam of Beis Tefillah. We will be finished 25-30 minutes after we start.

For working women who cannot make it, the Rav will speak that night (Tuesday) in the vasikin room, at 8:45 PM.

Children are welcome; there will be toys, and place for the children to run around.

Please make all necessary arrangements now, so that you will be able to make the extra effort to come to this important meeting.

Hakoras HaTov

At the last "Shovevim" Kashrus lecture, Rav Malinowitz presented R' Spira with a token of our appreciation, a voucher for R' Yechiel and his wife to go away to a (JKN-approved) hotel for Shabbos.

In addition, the Rav feels that it would be appropriate and appreciated to make a substantial donation to R' Yechiel's JKN (Jerusalem Kosher News) Website, www.jerusalemkoshernews.com, which informs and educates the public with constant updates in the world of kashrus, all done pro bono.

Please contact the Rav by e-mail (rav@btya.org) or phone to make a pledge. The pledges will all be transferred as one lump sum to JKN. (All that is important right now is the amount you would like to pledge. Collection, etc., will be discussed afterwards)

אבות ובנים

THE BTYA PURIM KATTAN MELAVA MALKA/CHAGIGA

Well over two hundred people attended the BTYA "Purim Kattan" Chagiga/Melava Malka.

Yehuda David's 4-piece ROCKIAH band gave us something to dance about and introduced a new, beautiful "Eliyahu HaNavi" tune.

Then, the Rav reminded the Tzibbur about the imperative to have a "cheerful heart," as he explained in his Shabbos D'rosha, and how it's exactly related to Purim Kattan and our Melave Malka.

Shlomo Katz shared some of his most popular songs, as well as giving us plenty to think about. The crowd got up to dance spontaneously several times.

In between the Shlomo Katz music, the BTYA men's choir, under the baton of choirmaster Eliyahu Haschel, gave an acappella, stellar performance of the famous Modzitz Shoshanas Yaakov with 4-part harmonies, solos, and everything you would expect from a full choir.

Felafel Naki doled out what must have been a record amount of falafel and drinks in 2.5 hours.

We are very appreciative to the following people who were instrumental in making the night a success:

The set-up crew:

- Asher Gherman
- Moshe & Yitzchak Aryeh Arnold
- Shaya & Tikva Sonnenberg

The clean-up crew:

- Asher, M.C. Zvi, and Eli Gherman

The ticket and CD sellers:

- Shaya, Tikva, & Ahuva Sonnenberg

The organizers and producers:

- Ephrayim Naiman
- Aryeh Sonnenberg

To Avraham and Sarah Manricks, for offering to bend over in all kinds of ways to make their backyard available for the event.

And, of course, our corporate sponsors:

“Shalach Manos” Project

Purim is quickly approaching!

The women at Beis Tefillah Yonah Avraham will make sending ‘Mishloach Manos’ packages much easier at this busy time of year.

And most importantly help our shul raise significant funds for shul events and projects which are benefiting us all.

Look for the BTYA ‘Mishloach Manos’ instructions and order forms in this message, or download a copy from the BTYA website. The links can be found on the right side of the home page of <http://btya.org>

Payment can be made through Yael Kagan at the BTYA office. Forms will only be processed upon payment.

Order deadline is Sunday, February 27th! Don't miss out!

Volunteers are also needed to help with packing the Mishloach Manos on Mar 8. If you can help out for even part of the time, please contact Ayelet Lefkowitz (02-999-5144 or alefkowitz@bezeqint.net) or Sarit Rosenblum (995-1107 or writesarit1@yahoo.com).

Purim Gadol

We've seen how amazing Purim Katan was at BTYA...get ready to experience Purim Gadol in a very big way at the BTYA Purim Messibah.

The Rav is back and owes us double this year.. that means more songs and more smiley cookie, chocolate fish, or Swedish fish than ever before. Plus Ari Goldwag and Yehuda David, balloon twisting, Melave Malke, and a mini-concert by a new group with all-new songs like “Hey, Jew” and “The Kashrus Man.”

Don't forget about the famous Let's Make a Deal costume contest during the second Megillah reading...

Crafting for Women

Attention all women of BTYA. This Wednesday March 2nd, there will be a really fun crafting hour from 9:30am until 10:30am in the BT simcha hall with Sarit Schonberg and Miriam Enoch. Beautiful fabric handmade flowers for brooches etc. can easily be made by YOU! 15 shekel admission includes all materials. Hope to see you there.

“Rack ‘em Frack ‘em”

“Rack ‘em, Frack ‘em” - A quote from one of the more interesting questions that came up on the BTYA members email list this week.

If you need something, chances are one of our members can help. Or, if you can help in some way, like maybe offering a ride, post it and maybe you can help someone else.

Send your messages to btya-members@btya.org.

The Adar Almond Special

You can join the blooming almond trees with our Adar Special... Order a leaf now on our Etz Chayim, pay in $, and benefit from a 4.0 NIS exchange rate!

Whatever your reason: Hakoras HaTov, לעילוי נשמת, or to mark a significant milestone, the shul's Etz Chayim is the most affordable way to make it last.

- Small Leaf - Still only $180 or 650 NIS (was 720)
- Medium Leaf - Still only $360 or 1300 NIS (was 1440)
- Large Leaf - Still only $720 or 2600 NIS (was 2880)
