Community Chessed

Thank you Rav Malinowitz for giving us great chizuk and inspiration to work together in the important avodah of chessed for the Shul and its members.

Thank you and kol hakavod to all the women who rearranged their busy schedules to come, both morning and night, and signed up for various chessed committees.

BE"H we will have great success in all our efforts together.

If you were unable to attend and would like to sign up or hear more about our committees, please contact Elisheva Schulman (shevwoman@gmail.com) or Shari Gherman (sharitzvi@gmail.com).

As a reminder, please let us know when you or a friend is celebrating a simcha or going through a hard time so we can be there to help. We can help with meals, bikur cholim visits or calls, local and non-local riving, buddies, kiddush set up... Just, please let us know!

The BTYA N'shei

The BTYA Member Guide

The 5771 BTYA Member Guide is under way, BH, and we need your help.

You should have received a few emails this week, asking you to review your contact details and picture.

In addition, we have been asked to include information about where people work and what they do professionally (yes, even if you work in the US... you never know).

This information could be valuable for a member who is interviewing at your company, seeking advice, or looking for service that he can trust, plus it could help generate business for those of you who have such goods or service to provide.

Please reply to these requests ASAP so we can move forward.

Looking for a Megillah Reader

If anyone (teenager would also be great) is able to lein sometime on Purim morning (time to be decided still) for kids under 6, a mini-megillah - so they can also come to shul and feel like they heard the Megillah (but didn't have to sit quietly for the entire Megillah), please contact Mrs. Miriam Beinash (992-1362 hbeinash@gmail.com). Ideally it should be a fun reading of the main parts and lots of time for the kids to make a big noise during Haman.

Mishmar Chaburah

This week, Elyahu Gherman led the chaburah on the topic of:

Drinking On Purim - How "דלא" Should You Go?

The Rav is back and owes us double this year! That means more songs, more smiley cookies, and chocolate (or Swedish) fish than ever before.

Plus Ari Goldwag and Yehuda David (from Rockiah), Balloon twisting, Melave Malka, and a mini-concert by a new group with all-new songs like "Hey, Jew" and "The Kashrus Man."

Don't forget about the famous Let's Make a Deal costume contest during the second Megillah reading.
