Let's Make Mishmar Greater!

To My Dear Friends At BTYA:

Mishmar is one of the best-kept secrets at BTYA. All of us can remember how powerful mishmar was in our yeshiva days. It was the final push of the week. A time to catch up on chazarah, learn a once-a-week limud, or start shnayim mikra. Maybe in your yeshiva there was even a chaburah given during that time....

We have all that at BTYA's mishmar. Yes, our stomachs may be a little rounder, our heads a little more shiny-but there is no reason that we can't shteig like a bachur again!

- We have an amazing rotating chaburah given by your friends. (We've learned about bishul in a kli sheini, drinking on Purim, choshen mishpat problems with neighbors, and Goldman's multimedia chaburahs on Tefillah.) At this point, about 15 men show up. But wouldn't it be great if we had more? Why not give a chaburah yourself? If you have never given one before, we'll help you prepare!
- Too busy for a bunch of amateurs? Well, you could go to Rabbi Greenspan's parsha chaburah, given every week.
- You could take a chevrusah - for a once-a-week-seder, he's not bad (and he's thinking the same about you).
- There is always a treat to eat, sometimes chulent (if we get lucky). Nothing like chazzaring over a plate of chazzerei.

It's at 10:30 PM in the shul. Some stay for a half hour, some till midnight, most in between, but please join us for this great opportunity!

For more information, sponsorships or chaburah reservation and questions, contact: Mordechai Slovin at mordechaislovin@gmail.com or me, David Kallus at Contact kallusdmd@gmail.com.

From the Stairway... to Heaven!

The entrance to the Ezras Nashim underwent a very beautiful upgrade this week with a new ceiling, made of geves and acoustic tiles, plus lighting.

This is just the first stage of the work that's being done in the area, but what a difference it makes. And, without a doubt, the BTYA women deserve it all!

A huge yasher koach to Avraham Manricks for donating and arranging the work.

Avraham, your efforts on the "stairway" should help the tefillos of you and your family be heard in "heaven."

Shabbos Zachor

Next week, Leil Shabbos Zachor, is the world-famous unforgettable pre-Purim, but not Purim-dik (well, not TOO MUCH Purim-dik) Oneg-At-Beryl's Once-A-Year-Extavaganza! That's Beryl (and Nava) Thomas, for those of you who have just joined us from the Moon.

Special accommodations for the humor-impaired.

Special BTYA Choir Accompaniment

In light of their successful debut, the BTYA Men's Choir is coming back, and this time, we are not afraid to let them into our own Beis Medrash!

Join us on Shabbos Zachor, for Shacharis and Musaf with modest accompaniment by the choir, in a few appropriate, selected areas.

It will bring a smile to your face, and perhaps tears to your eyes. No tomatoes in the Beis Medrash, please!

Looking for a Megillah Reader

If anyone (teenager would also be great) is able to lein sometime on Purim morning (time to be decided still) for kids under 6, a mini-megillah - so they can also come to shul and feel like they heard the Megillah (but didn't have to sit quietly for the entire Megillah), please contact Mrs. Miriam Beinash (992-1362 hbeinash@gmail.com).

Ideally it should be a fun reading of the main parts and lots of time for the kids to make a big noise during Haman.
