Summer Oneg

The topic of this week's "summer version" of the Oneg, learning selected Rambans on the parsha, is

"Big Nissim, Small Nissim, Short Nissim, Tall Nissim - Which Does HaShem Prefer?"

The relevant Rambans are: Bamidbar 21:9; Bereishis 6:19 and 10:1; see Ramban Devarim 20:9.

The Oneg will meet this Friday night, starting at 9:15 PM until about 10:15 PM, at the Shul. Refreshments will be served.

Thanks For The Pampering

The second annual "Night of Pampering" women's melava malka last motzei Shabbos was a wonderful success!

Thanks goes to many women who made the event possible:

- All the women who made or brought food, especially Miriam Kaplan, who generously provided her "Impressions catering" delicious waffle mix and waffle maker for the event.
- The many volunteers who went beyond the call of duty and stayed until midnight (!) to indulge the women with massages, makeovers, and meditation were all wonderful. The make-up artists included Zohar Mendelson and her daughter Ya'ara Katz (all the way from Efrat!), Estee Greenberg, Rivka Sassler, and Miriam Kaufman. The massage therapists included Shayna Enkin and Esther Jacobs. And Susie Rosenfeld provided meditation sessions which left the women feeling relaxed and refreshed! Please show them how much you appreciated their time and chessed by using their services in the future.

- Our volunteer waffle and fruit shake makers, Tamar Levinson and Shani Yitzhari (who also stayed past midnight!).
- Our amazing hostess, Allison Rosenbaum, for opening up and setting up her home so soon after Shabbos for the event.

- The hard working melava malka committee: Headed by Gila Arnold and Tali Slifkin: Ayelet Lefkowitz, Sarah Schechter, Lauren Pitzele and Raizy Zeltzer.

Thank you to Rebbetzin Malinowitz and to all the women who joined us.

We hope those who missed it this year won't make the same mistake next year!

BTYA Garage Sale

BTYA's garage sale is this Tuesday in the Simcha hall from 9:30 AM to 5:30 PM.

Please continue to donate your clutter and help us raise funds for the ezras nashim!

Thank you to everyone who has so far contributed to the sale. Please drop off your things at 8/3 Achziv at the Schonbergs, or call Sarit Schonberg at 995 1254.

Anyone who wants to help set up the day before should also call. Thanks.

BTYA Sweepstakes

The American Friends of Beis Tefillah $10,000 Sweepstakes is back!

This crucial fundraiser for the shul is underway and we need your help (yes you, and you, and you... oh yeah, and you, too, hiding over there...) to make it a success, be"H!

More information will be coming by email, but please start contacting friends, family and anyone else you want to give a chance to win $10,000!

Chances are 1-in-500 or better!

Suggested donation (and we really, REALLY suggest you get that FULL donation!) is $100 or 340 NIS.

As a bonus, for every 5 tickets you solicit at the full suggested donation price, you get an extra ticket in the sweepstakes (only one ticket per person, so you'll have to find people you like a lot to give all those extra tickets to).

So, start selling and give all those people a great chance at $10,000 (and help the shul while you're at it).

For more information, email sweepstakes@btya.org.
