A Message from the Rav

I urge the olom to come to the oneg (details below), even for just a few minutes (though I warn you that you will stay for longer), if for no other reason than to meet, schmooze with, and hear from the very fine, heimish, wonderful, English-speaking Kollel fellows who are "our Kollel."

They are the שמן פך from which many berachos have flowed (talk to Naftali Rischall, Moshe Lichtenstein, or Simon Baum to understand this fully).

See you there!

Rav Chaim Malinowitz

The Annual Shabbos Oneg

This year's annual Leil Shabbos Chanukka Oneg is taking on a special twist...

This year's Oneg is hosted by...

Your Kollel...the yungeleit who learn in our Beis Medrash every day.

The Kollel, that we, our Kehillah, underwrites, is perhaps the largest reason for the transformation of our Shul into a conspicuous and influential mokom Torah in the community.

Come and meet them, schmooze with them!

- Enjoy Divrei Torah – they want to share their Chanukka insights with you
- Give and Get Chizzuk
- Nosh on Chanukka treats

They would love to meet you, greet you, and feed you!

Tonight, at the home of Gavriel Enoch, Achziv 4/3, starting from 8:30 PM.

Timely Torah

The Ayn Yaakov shiur this Shabbos will be learning the Ayn Yaakov on מסכת שבת - the sugya of Chanukka.

Melava Malka Success

The Women's Melava Malka last Motzei Shabbos was a HUGE success.

Thank you to the following people who helped make the event possible:

- To all the women who participated in the fun evening.
- To all the women who made or brought food - it was all delicious!
- To Elisheva Schulman (and the Schulman family) for hosting the large event.
- To the melava malka committee:

Ellie Fein and Tali Slifkin, the co-heads, Sarah Manricks, Malki Pachas, Aliza Rosenstein, Kimberly Schwartz, and Marla Sklar.

A special thank you to the Rav and Rebbetzin for their divrei hisorerus about the new women's committees.

VeYeeten LeCho

The shul's maariv Minyan will NOT be saying "veyeetein lecho" this Motzei Shabbos. If you say it every week, make sure you say it at home, later.
