Seize the Opportunity

The Torah Programming Committee, having done an amazing job at filling our BM with lomdei Torah, day and night, is facing an accumulative deficit of nearly 6000 shekel by the end of Kislev.

This is a mixed blessing...we have added many Shiurim and programs, B"H, but, frankly, not enough people are contributing their share.

And so we are turning to you, now, offering you the opportunity to share in the zechuyos of all the Torah study that takes place in the Shul during the course of one day.

There are two things you can do:

- 1) Pick a day to sponsor, and reserve the parnass hayom for that day..it is available for only 400 shekel. We are looking for 15 people to step up by the end of Kislev (you can pick any day of the year to sponsor, of course).
- 2) If you are not already a monthly supporter of BTYA's Torah Programming, please consider this opportunity by submitting a monthly Hora'at keva to help us continue!

TP must meet all its obligations by the end of Kislev, and we are turning to you to participate NOW, I'kovod Chanukah, I'kovod the shiurim (especially if you directly benefit from any of them), and I'kovod all the Torah-learning that goes on in the Shul, BH!

For more information, or to STEP UP, contact Ari Stern or the Rav.

TIZKU LEMITZVOS...and to your share in the daily Z'chuyos of all these Lomdei Torah!

Women's Melave Malka!

This motzei shabbos there will be a women's pre-channukah melava malka, at the home of Elisheva Schulman, Tamar # 8 (please note change of venue from last week's newsletter), starting at 7:30.

Also, we will be launching a few, new amazing committees and the Rav will address the women for a few minutes.

To help make this event a fun, entertaining and interactive evening, please bring a small wrapped gift (up to 20 nis) that somehow represents you or your family. Please include a short note hinting to how the gift connects to you. Be creative, it can be ~~anything!~~

In the event that you are unable to bring a gift, COME ANYWAY! You can participate and have fun regardless!

Give yourself some enjoyable time off.
You deserve it!
