Meeting With The Rav

The Rav does his best to be available to meet and talk with people (in person and by phone) literally around the clock.

Because of this, the best way to "guarantee" a time to meet, is to actually schedule such time with the Rav.

The best way to schedule a time is by emailing to rav@btya.org. Second best is to call at 054-914-6311.

In general, if something is not pressing, the Rav would prefer phone calls AFTER 2 PM.

Due to the Rav's schedule and other responsibilities, it is very unlikely that you will catch him, unscheduled, with time to talk, so please don't be disappointed if the Rav tells you that he can't even answer your "simple" questions on-the-fly. He certainly wants to – and will, IY"H – but at that moment, other commitments may come first.

Thank you for your understanding.

Team Geniza

BTYA is looking for a few volunteers to join the Geniza Team that helps clear the shul of all geniza-requiring items.

Being part of the BTYA Geniza Team involves taking a somewhat heavy garbage-can size container filled with shaimos papers to the local Beit Shemesh cemetery (not the "Eretz Hachayim" cemetery).

In the parking lot there is a big tent-like structure containing multiple bins. The shaimos needs to be dumped in those bins.

Kohanim need not apply.
