Shiurim By: Rabbi Binyamin Jacobson

Originally from Brooklyn, NY, Rabbi Binyamin Jacobson grew up from a young age learning from Rabbi Avigdor Miller, zt"l. Rabbi Miller's inspiration continues to be a major influence, both in his personal life as well as his style of teaching, to this very day. Rabbi Jacobson's father imbued in him a passion for Torah, and sent him off to Israel to learn at 15. There he studied under some of the generation's great luminaries of Torah and Mussar.

He is currently an editor of the ArtsScroll Schottenstein Yerushalmi, as well as other projects of Torah literature. He and his family have been living in RBS for almost 10 years, where he has earned a glowing reputation for his shiurim on numerous different topics.
