The leil shabbos oneg will take place this week at 8.30 PM at the home of the Baum family, Nachal Alexander 11/2.

Feel free to ask the Rav any questions - except related to the current "Matzav" which the Rav will be addressing during this week's Shabbos Drosha.

The Matzav

The Rav will be addressing what is going on, in a most fundamental way, during this week's Shabbos Drosha.

Message from the Rav

Moraiy VeRabosaiy, and Women of Beis Tefillah Yonah Avraham:

For the first time in quite a few years , we are getting together again—all of us—at a Melava Malka, the purpose of which in manifold:

- ◇ Yes, it is a "night out" amongst friends.
- ◇ Yes, it is a סעודת מצוה (brought to you by our own Zevy and Mrs. Weissmandl, accompanied by lively and inspiring music and singing by our own Simchah Sussman).
- ◇ Yes, it is an evening to take stock of where we are holding as a ציבור, how far we've come, and how much of a distance we still have to travel.
- ◇ Yes, it is an evening to thank the lay leadership of the Shul (all of them, over all the years) for bringing us to this point.
- ◇ And finally, what could be wrong with a בר מצוה celebration??

And one more major point—we don't get together—all of us—all that often. Usually it takes something along the lines of a tragedy, חס ושלום, or conversely, an extraordinary שמחה.

Well, 13 years of our Kehilla's growth certainly calls for a סעודת הודאה, with all of us as the participants!

So, please don't look at this as just another "thing to do on a שבת מוצאי," rather, look at the מלווה מלכה as an opportunity to celebrate the Shul's growth, to thank ה' for that growth, and to rededicate ourselves to further that growth—and all amongst a great bunch of guys and gals!

B'chovod, RCZM
