Special Shabbos Chanukah Tish

There will be a special Leil Shabbos "tish" NEXT leil Shabbos, leil Zos Chanukah, with Rabbi Tal Zwecker. Details forthcoming!

BTYA Loan G'mach

Since issuing its first loan in February 2011, the BTYA Loan Gemach has assisted members of our Kehilla by loaning funds for a variety of financial needs, including:

- Business expenses
- Chaggim expenses
- Wedding expenses
- Bar mitzvah expenses
- Covering short-term cash shortages

The Gemach serves a crucial and unique function. By nature, it is not a tzedakah fund, as it is geared towards assisting families that have a steady income and will be able to repay the loan, thereby preventing the tragic consequences of cash shortages. Upon repayment of the loans, the funds become available to the Gemach to issue further loans to the community.

To date, the Gemach has issued 32 loans, totaling over ₪200,000!!!

94% of the Gemach's funds have been generously loaned by BTYA members, while the remaining 6% of the funds have been donated. While this generosity has helped maintain the financial stability of the Gemach, the Gemach requires a more balanced percentage of donated funds in order to obtain the desired level of cash flow flexibility that is often necessary to meet the needs of the community.

Baruch Hashem, the Gemach's success has been coupled with the high level of loan repayment by borrowers. Not one borrower has defaulted, nor has there been a need to turn to a loan guarantor to repay a loan! May Hashem grant us continued success and stability!

Your assistance in donating funds to the Gemach would be greatly appreciated, and BE"H will go a long way in perpetually assisting BTYA community members with maintaining financial stability.

Melava Malka Update

We are still kvelling over the beautiful Melava Malka that we shared together last week.

It was a wonderful celebration of the shul's bar mitzvah and an appropriate show of הכרת הטוב for the Rav and Rebbetzin's first 10 years with the Kehilla.

The Weissmandl's food, Kol Simcha's music, Eli Gherman's video, The Malinowitz family anthem, and the inspirational words all came together for a moving and memorable evening. But above all, the achdus of us all being together as one Kehilla was the highlight of the night.

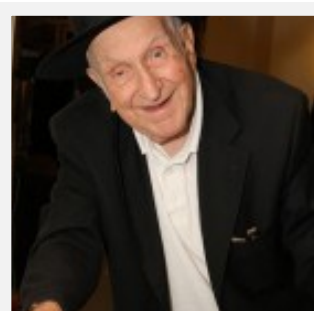

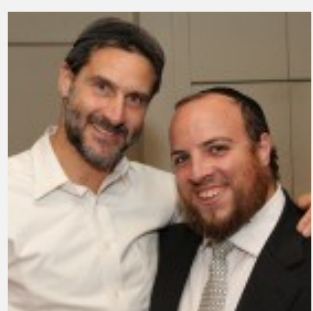

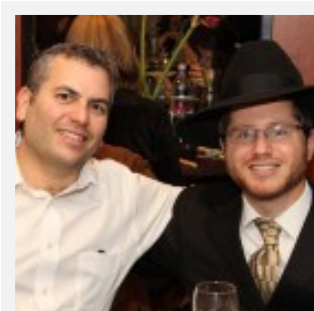

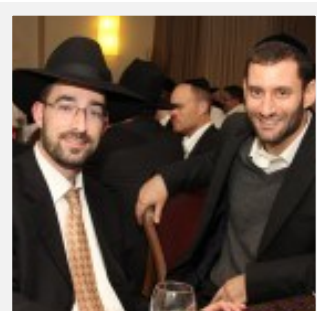

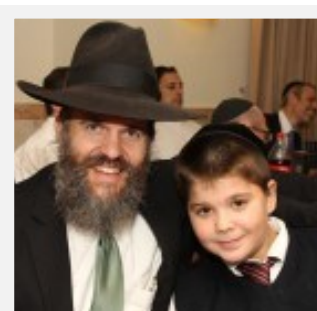

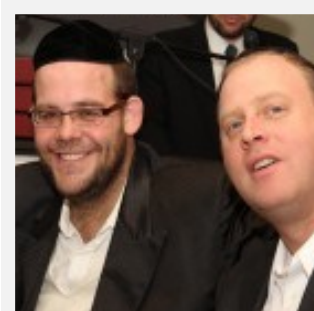

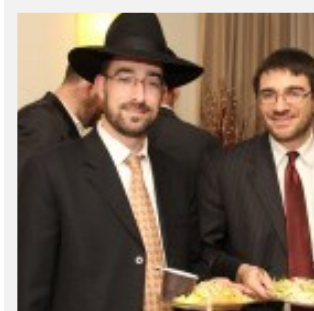

Thanks goes to everyone who came, who put ads in the journal and who pitched in to help make this incredible event happen. Special thanks to Dov and Lauren Greenberg and Mrs. Sarah Manricks for arranging the whole evening.

At the risk of leaving someone off, but with the Rav's encouragement to show הכרת הטוב to all, we also want to thank:

- Rav Kornfeld, א שליט"א for sharing his words towards the Guests of ....Appreciation.
- Asher and Akiva Gherman for doing a lot of stuff behind the scenes.
- Mrs. Shifra Goldmeier for helping with the registration desk.
- Chanie Rand (nee Loring) for the artwork on the journal covers, Noni Spiegel for the inside of the journal, and Mrs. Sheila Shruga for proofreading. We hope to have the custom-printed album available for viewing at Shul next Shabbos.
- Beryl Thomas and Denny Simon for beautiful pics and videos.
- Lev Seltzer for putting together all the pics, videos, and journal for you to enjoy at home. Visit www.btya.org and look for the Melava Malka link on the right-side of the page.
- Many members of the board who helped out in various ways.

May we be blessed to celebrate many more simchas together!
