Prime Time for Am Yisroel to Be Answered

Especially over the past few months we have been pouring out our hearts to the Ribbono Shel Olam to grant Klal Yisroel Sholom, Rain, protection from our enemies...Kavod L'Torah and in addition our individual requests for, Refuah, proper education for our children, Parnassa, shidduchim... the list goes on and on.

The Kotzker Rebbe said that the distance between heaven and earth is a journey of hundreds of years, but the distance between the mind and the heart is even greater. How truly hard it is for us to take action on our words!

Rav's Pesach Schedule

Rav Malinowitz will be away for Pesach starting this Thursday, IY"H coming back a day or 2 after Pesach ends in the States.

His cell number there will be-347-409-2387. Feel free to call-it's fine. He will in general not be able to return calls-or at least, it will be difficult to.

He will have e-mail access, but it will be limited to once or twice a day. Anything at all urgent, make sure that you call. Please use rav@btya.org or czm613@gmail.com

The Rav's son Nechemya will be taking care of mechiras chametz. He has experience and shimush. The days and hours will be posted in next week's bulletin, IY"H.

Where's my Early Shabbos?

BTYA "Early Shabbos" minyonim are scheduled to begin after Pesach. Look for an announcement after Pesach with complete details.

Yeshivas Bein Hazemanim (YBHZ) Is Coming

We have made arrangements regarding which boys will be using our Beis Medrash—and you will see less noise, and more serious chevra.

They, we, need sponsors—Pesach is the busiest YBHZ (either learn or do the windows and clean the car and...), and our "share-in-the-burden" is about 8,000 shekel.

This enables the whole gesheft—not just our Beis Medrash.

So—think about it, consider it, l'eeluy nishmas, a zechus, whatever. Contact the Rav or Moshe Lichtenstein for details.

the students of Mir who had emigrated to the United States. Several of them had died suddenly at a young age, and no one knew what to do. One of the students wrote a letter to his friend, Rav Avraham Wolf, the principal of Seminar Bais Yaakov in Bnei Brak, asking him to seek advice for them.

Since the Chazon Ish was no longer living, Rav Wolf did not know whom to consult. In shul, he encountered Rav Moshe Mordechai Shulsinger. He told Rav Wolf that in the yeshivos in Europe, it was known that the prayers of Yom Kippur Katan help abolish bad decrees. Rav Wolf telegraphed his friend in the United States and related this information. It was close to Rosh Chodesh, and the students were able to organize the recitation of Yom Kippur Katan. From then on, none of that group of Mir students died young.

The atonement of Yom Kippur Katan is similar to the atonement attained through the goat that was offered in the Holy Temple on Rosh Chodesh. There is a custom to make a Yom Kippur Katan (miniature Yom Kippur) service at the Minchah prayer of Erev Rosh Chodesh. [Note that the Yom Kippur Katan service is not recited during the months of Tishrei (Erev Rosh Chodesh Cheshvan), Kislev (Erev Rosh Chodesh Teves), Nissan (Erev Rosh Chodesh Iyar) and Elul (Eveve Rosh Hashanah).]

The Magen Avraham writes that it is desirable to say the Selichos [i.e., the Yom Kippur Katan service] before the Minchah prayer. Some people also say all of Tehillim after midday. There are some who fast on that day. This aspect of Yom Kippur Katan varies according to locality and the person's strength.

The Chofetz Chaim saw Hashem's great mercy in Yom Kippur Katan. Hashem knows that it is difficult for man to do teshuvah and repent one time a year — on Yom Kippur — for all his transgressions throughout the year. Therefore, He gave us Yom Kippur Katan — qualified times for teshuvah and forgiveness of sins. Each month during the year we have an opportunity to gain forgiveness for sins committed, to fulfill our obligation to repent a little at a time.

Mishnah Berurah states that even someone who does not fast on Erev Rosh Chodesh should, at any rate, repent on that day and correct any wrongdoings that occurred during the month that has passed. This is a worthwhile endeavor because it is the final day of the entire month — the last opportunity to mark the month with good, just as Erev Rosh Hashanah is the final day of the entire year. If a person takes the time and makes the effort to clean the slate, the day of Rosh Chodesh will bring him atonement, leading him into a fresh new month of spiritual growth, unburdened by the sins of the month gone by.
