Life Cycles

Mazal Tov to the Rav and Rebbetzin on the engagement of their daughter Chaya Beracha to Yisrael Abramowitz of Boro Park.

חיזוק דרבים

These days are critical and our efforts are still needed! Please join the חציבור strengthening itself for the ישעיה שלום בן מלכה גיטל of רפואה שלימה

Please select from the list of recommendations below or add your own (it is recommended to pick five items from the list):

1. Learn Shmiras HaLashon Yomi.
2. Say birchos hashachar from a siddur.
3. Bentch (or say borei nefashos or al hamichya) from a siddur or bentcher.
4. Say asher yatzar from a siddur or a poster that is often there.
5. Once a day, when you kiss the mezuzah, think about how HaShem is watching us and taking care of us.
6. Once a day, give a person a full smile and an encouraging word – this emulates HaShem, Who "uplifts and strengthens the humble."
7. For men – add 5 minutes to one of your learning sedarim.
8. For women – say 2 Pirkei Tehillim daily, with a translation if necessary to know what you are saying.
9. Once a day, think when eating that you are eating in order to live in order to serve HaShem.
10. Do one specific act of chessed a day as a zechus.
11. When saying "modim anachnu lach" in shemoneh essrei, think of one specific thing that you are thanking HaShem for – do this once a day.
12. Every day, for a few seconds, think that you believe that Mashi'ach will come, and that there is an olom haba.

There are papers in the Beis Medrash to help remind you of your obligation.

Thank you from BTYA

In addition to the post-Purim thanks for the Shul Mishloach Manos helpers, BTYA would like to wish a special יישר כוח to the organizers, who took this project and brought it back to life this year.

As the Rav has taught us – גדול המעשה מן העושה – the facilitators have greater s'char than the participants. This is an important fundraiser for the Shul operations, and it really helps us provide continued service to the kehilla.
