BTYA presents

YARCHEI KALLAH IX

In 5766, during the second Lebanon War, BTYA held a Milchemta shel Torah. In order to support our brothers fighting for the security of Am Yisrael, every night of Bein Hazmanim the Beis Medrash was packed with men and boys learning for their z'chus. I, myself, made Aliyah during Milchemta shel Torah and I fell in love with this kehillah because of that strong showing and dedication.

Since then, we have held a yearly learning program called "Yarchei Kallah" to increase the learning in the community during a time of the year that is usually weak in Talmud Torah. The shiurim are led by Rabbi Barak Saffer, with a grand finale by Rav Malinowitz, Shli"ta. They are iyun shiurim with directed mareeh mekomos that are handed out in advance.

On the Gashmiyous side every night has a very respectable Kibud Kal (usually of the fleishigs variety).

We are hoping this year to continue in the Yarchei Kallah tradition, but if Hashem wills, and the war is not over we will go to PLAN B and have a Milchemta Shel Torah again.

Looking forward to your participation,

David Kallus
