Special Speaker after Musaf

IY"H this Shabbos, Rav Binyomin Karlebach shlita, Rosh Yeshiva in Mir will be speaking after Musaf (approx. 9:50am).

From The Rav: "Mir Dinner in Beit Shemesh"

Moraiy VeRabosaiy:

In just about 10 days (27 Sivan; June 14), Mirer Yeshivah will be holding a dinner in Ramat Beit Shemesh for its RBS friends and supporters.

Nedivim

budget for the year 2014 was—3.5 billion dollars! (pity-I would've done it for cheaper.)

The point? The point is that to maintain excellence, to maintain quality, to maintain what you have achieved and build further—requires very hard work, investment, and getting out the message—to wit, Mirrer Yeshivah, Yeshivah to about 8,000 students, alma mater to thousands upon thousands more, arguably THE biggest Yeshivah, mokom Torah in the world today, needs YOUR help in meeting its annual approximately $40,000,000 budget. It's that simple.

And people around the world, quite literally, are being asked to show their support for the Yeshivah which they, or maybe their brother, or their cousin, uncle, or brother-in-law, went to, learnt in, was inspired by, and shteiged through.

Surely Mir deserves the entire Jewish world's whole-hearted appreciation and support. Surely we should join in with the thousands around the world to show gratitude and acknowledgement to—"the Mir"!

Come greet the Roshei Yeshivah, your old friends, people you know; and participate in what will surely prove to be a most inspiring evening!

Planning Your Summer Budget?

BTYA is planning our almost-annual Shabbos Chevron, on Parshas Ki Savo (Sep 4-5).

The purpose of the Shabbos is to derive inspiration for our personal תפילות via the Hashpa'ah of the ישיני חברון, the אמהות and אבות, and through their great-grandchildren who will be guiding us.

The program, taking place the Shabbos of ערב סליחות, serves as the perfect preparation for the ימים מוראים as well as a primer for the enhancement of our daily תפילות.

When you plan out your summer budget, you won't find a more-enriching way to spend a Shabbos, in so many ways!
