The Nine Days, 5775

עו"ש : Moraiy VeRabosaiy

Ten years ago, we went to war.

In the shadow of the Second Lebanon War, we started a BTYA learning program for the post-Tish'a B'Av period, a period not usually known for its intense learning ambience.

"Milchamto shel Torah" we called it, as we suspended our normal summertime activities and girded ourselves to be under the command of General Barak Saffer, whose strategies and maneuverings to achieve "bedrock" p'shat was already the stuff of legend.

We won that war. And BH the next eight.

But now we face new challenges. The Army is maybe tired, maybe has moved on to other issues, maybe doesn't see any longer the need for such vigilance.

But on the contrary, we now newly face Iran, our old enemy of Peras, which today, now, every day, makes no secret of trying to exterminate the Jewish people, chas veshalom. And we also face an enemy -in-everything-but-name, whom we will call Achashveirosh, who wants nothing better than to facilitate Peras' plans. And is doing so in a big way.

And all this happened in the last few weeks, under our very noses.

The pundits pontificate; the pontificators pontificate; and the politicians huff and puff;

The one benefit of the present matzav is the realization dawning on everyone that אין לנו להישען אלא על אבינו שבחמים

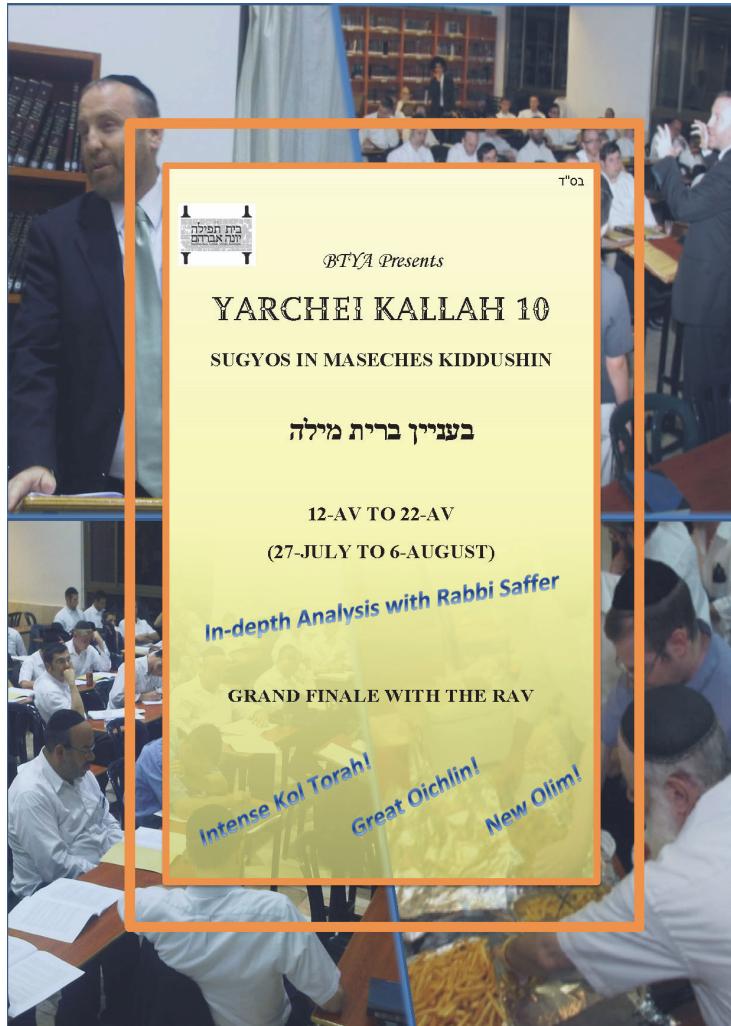

And so we urge you to join General Barak and his army of eeyun-learners, to renew the bris with the Almighty, and to wake up and realize that it is zeman gerama for our Land, our Nation, for us.

Who knows what zechusim we can accumulate on behalf of K'ilal Yisrael? What advantages in this final battle we will gain through this tenth milchamto shel Torah? And all it takes are about 8 nights of commitment, joining great chevra, focusing on the sugyos of bris milah and mitzvos of zeman gerama through chevrusah learning, pilpul chaveirim, and of course the Shiur..., and with a bit of mesiras nefesh thrown in to make your way through all the great hot food which will be served.

See you there!

To enlist, or just for more information, or to offer to be just a "jobnick," talk to the General himself, the Chaplain (that would be me), who is normally automatically accorded Officer status, or the COO (Doc Kallus, represented by the capable Ayton Lefkowitz).
