President's Corner

New Board Member

The committee heads are hard at work taking care of their many responsibilities. I am pleased to announce the addition of R' Ayton Lefkowitz to the board. Ayton has agreed to chair the committee of Torah programming a committee clearly vital to our kehilla. In addition to helping to run the current Torah programming in the shul, Ayton will work with the Rav Shlita in organizing special speakers and designing and implementing new ideas to enhance Torah in the shul.

Ayton welcome aboard!

Mesivta Shas

Thank you to R' Jonathan Sassen for all the work involved in installing the new Mesivta Shas. From ordering the new shas, the new bookshelves and getting the shas bound, to rearranging the current shelves to accommodate this massive set, Jonathan took care of it all.

Thank you to the Adler family for generously donating the shas in memory of our dear friend Mr Graenim Adler A"H.

Hall Reservation Update - NEW

- To reserve events, contact Maadanei Melech (MM), as always. This will change at Rosh Chodesh Nissan.
- To discuss already-reserved events that are taking place before Rosh Chodesh Nissan, contact MM.
- For already-reserved events that are taking place after Rosh Chodesh Nissan: If MM is catering them, contact MM. If they are not catering, we will want the detail of those events so we can ensure your satisfaction, when we ask for them, in the upcoming week. Please do not contact us about those now.
- In order to avoid confusion, any new payments made for events after the end of Adar should be made only against a receipt.
- At this time, it is unclear whether non-members can use outside caterers, so we are not publicizing anything about that.
- As always, BTYA members (full or building fund) can use their own caterers for all events. Building fund members get extra discounts on rental, too.
