Share A Name Shidduch Initiative

The idea of the Share A Name initiative is to utilize the resources that we have in our community to find more eligible boys and girls for our children to date. Anyone who is dating, is a resource because they can provide names of people suggested to them, or of people they have dated. If they think the person is a quality suggestion, but not for themselves, they can pass the info on to this email and the shadchanim can access it. They could also contact the person who might be mateem directly.

In addition we are asking that you network with your sons and son-in-law to get access to young men who aren't coming to the RBS shadchanim.

Please send any ideas or suggestions to shareanamerbs@gmail.com
