A letter from the President
New Vaad opportunity with R' Binyamin Jacobson

To My Dear Chaveirim,

Very often, I feel quite comfortable in my avodas Hashem. I am basically a good guy (I hope you agree), I put in my hours of learning, davening, sprinkled with some chesed and mitzvos along the way. As life would have it, I developed a sort of routine which helps me feel satisfied with who I am and in my relationship with Hashem. But when I sit down to think about what it means to grow in ruchniyous, I have to admit that my routine is actually holding me back from growing. With Elul and the Yomim Noraim just around the corner, I realize that its time to take stock of what will make 5779 a year where my personal avoda can have a chance to thrive.

I have been in discussion with the Rav Shlita and Rav Binyamin Jacobson about forming a new vaad. The vaad led by Rav Jacobson, will focus bez"H on the one hand on practical steps of personal growth, while at the same time attempting to internalize perspectives and principles that provide us with the ability to effectively navigate our own, individualized path of personal growth. Depending on the makeup of our group, we will study midos and apply them appropriately.

Rabbosai, we are no longer bochurim, many of us are B"H Zaidies. Reading a Sichos Mussar is wonderful but was it written for us? We are Baalei Batim in a different phase of life, we have different challenges, far more complex challenges in coming close to Hashem than a 21 year old yeshivah bachor. We balance marriage, chinuch, tzedakah and chesed, learning, kibud av va'em, honesty and so many more inyanim in a great web that needs to be worked through carefully to become a shalem person. With a customized vaad we could work on our midos together as a group be inspired and challenged by each other and make this year the beginning of a new phase of growth.

I encourage you to join me in this unique opportunity. Our vaad leader/mashgiach Rav Jacobson needs no introduction. The target night is Wednesday evenings at BTYA. There will certainly be homework between the vaadim and I look forward to the closeness that such a vaad can bring to friends. If interested please write me back and I will work with Rav Jacobson on organizing the vaad.
