Lekedoshim Siyum

We have been presented with a great opportunity to be a part of and do something incredibly meaningful this Yom Hazikaron.

Lekedoshim is a project to complete at least one siyum ha'shas Bavli, one siyum mishnayos and one siyum tanach on Yom Hazikaron by having people learn either a daf of gemara, a perek of mishnayos or a perek of tanach in memory of the chayalim noflim who have been killed defending us and Eretz Yisrael. Each daf or perek is assigned to a specific chayal nofel with details of the chayal nofel given to the participant. Lekedoshim's ultimate goal is to have something learned for each chayal nofel on Yom Hazikaron (26,000+, r"l).

The biggest challenge Lekedoshim usually faces is the siyum ha'shas Bavli (they already have the siyum mishnayos and a few siyumei tanach covered). So, since BTYA is always up for a challenge, we have undertaken to help in the siyum ha'shas Bavli by learning Maseches Bechoros.

On Yom Hazikaron, you can learn in BTYA or anywhere else, but we would like to learn this maseches as one kehilla l'ilui nishmos all of the chayalei noflim, to whom we owe so much and who should be in our minds and hearts on that day. It is a very special and meaningful and kadosh way we can give to those who gave the ultimate for all of us.

So please visit btya.org/lekedoshim, get more information and sign up for at least a daf. Don't wait! Feel free to ask your sons if they want to learn a daf as well. If we fill it up and there is a ratzon to do more, we can arrange for an additional maseches.

Thank you and tizku l'mitzvos,

Tzvi

New Kisay HaBris/Kisay Shel Eliyahu

The Eliyahu and Shulie Gherman family would like to take this opportunity to give hakaras hatov to the Rav and Rebetzin, the BTYA kehilla, and the extended RBS family for all of your chessed: Tefillos, learning, words of encouragement, help with meals and more.

This project started several years ago, and we apologize that it took so long but are excited that we could finally help bring a unique kisay shel Eliyahu to this unique kehilla. May we all be able to share in many smachot and brachot together watching as our generations to follow continue to uphold our bris with Hakadosh Baruch Hu, and with Hashem's help be zocheh to Torah, Chupa, and Maasim Tovim.

Yasher Koach to Yariv Newman and his friend Joe for helping with ideas in designing the chair

And a special hakaras hatov to the artist, Gabriel Bass, who invested so much time, patience, heart and skill in creating this one of a kind chair. He truly did this for our shul as a labor of love and gave us much more than we paid for. If you want to call him to compliment his efforts, or to see more of his work, contact Gabriel at 052-676-9789.
