Lifecycles

Mazal Tov to Moshe & Chana Leah Stengel on birth of great-grandson, to their grandchildren Avigail & Doni Stewart of Baltimore. Mazel tov also to the grandparents Rabbi Yochanan & Rochel Stengel of Baltimore.

Elul is upon us; it is a time for Teshuva, Tfilla and Tzedakah. The Kitzur Shulchan Aruch quotes the Arizal, saying that the letters אלול stand for עיר מקלט, and the hint is that Elul is a time to do Teshuvah for shortcomings of the past year. The choice of עיר מקלט as a remez for teshuvah implies that this yearly process is dependent not only on time or on our mindset, but it is also dependent on place. The shul is the place that we can escape to in order to focus on our personal growth and improve in various areas ahead of the impending court date on Rosh Hashana. It is this time of year that we ask you to renew your commitment to your BTYA - by continuing your membership.

I wish you a Ksiva Vachasima Tova and look forward to sharing with you all the special moments of the upcoming Yomim Noraim and Zman Simchasainu.
